OCTOBER 2025

THURSDAY 02: TORONTO

Fly from your hometown to Toronto.

Welcome to TORONTO, a vibrant cultural and economic hub that offers Italian tourists a dynamic mix of experiences, from its diverse arts scene to its thriving business sector. As Canada's largest city, Toronto is known for its multiculturalism, and Italian culture has played a significant role in shaping the city's identity.

Meet your Italian-speaking tour manager and transfer to your hotel in a private bus.

Check in at your hotel.

Welcome dinner at a local restaurant.

Overnight in Toronto.

Accommodation:

Radisson Blu Toronto Downtown or similar – 2 nights

FRIDAY 03: NIAGARA FALLS

Breakfast at your accommodation.

Meet your tour manager, board your bus, and depart for Niagara Falls.

Drive through the Ontario province for about 2 hours and arrive at the falls, the Canadian side.

Niagara Falls is a breathtaking natural wonder on the Canada-U.S. border, offering stunning views of its powerful cascades. Tourists can experience the falls up close on a boat tour, which takes them right to the misty base of Horseshoe Falls for an unforgettable thrill.

Time for a cruise – about 30 minutes.

Lunch at your arrangements and free time to admire the falls – a great photo opportunity!

Board your private bus and drive back to Toronto, a two-hour drive.

In downtown Toronto, you will get to the CN Tower. The CN Tower, one of Toronto's most iconic landmarks, stands at 553 meters, offering breathtaking panoramic views of the city and Lake Ontario. International tourists can visit the 360 Restaurant, a revolving dining experience that showcases Canadian cuisine with a stunning skyline backdrop. With its nighttime illuminations, the CN Tower is a must-visit attraction for visitors seeking thrill and fine dining.

Tonight's dinner will be hosted at the 360 Restaurant, on top of the tower. It will be a three-course dinner (drinks not included).

Return to your hotel for overnight.

SATURDAY 04: TORONTO - VANCOUVER

Breakfast at your accommodation and check out.

Board your private bus, drive to the Toronto airport for your morning flight to Vancouver.

Your local tour manager will say goodbye at the airport.

Flight time to Vancouver is about 4.5 to 5 hours – no connections.

After landing in Vancouver, you will meet your local Italian-speaking tour manager, board your bus, and depart for your hotel, where you will check in.

Welcome to Vancouver! Vancouver, a stunning coastal city, offers Italian tourists a mix of urban sophistication and breathtaking natural beauty, with mountains, ocean, and lush parks. The city boasts a rich culinary scene, including authentic Italian restaurants in Commercial Drive's Little Italy, and world-class shopping and entertainment. Outdoor enthusiasts can explore Stanley Park, Capilano Suspension Bridge, and Whistler, making Vancouver an unforgettable destination.

Dinner at a local restaurant.

Return to your hotel for overnight.

Accommodation: Holiday Inn Richmond Riverport or similar – 2 nights.

SUNDAY 05: VANCOUVER

Breakfast at your accommodation.

Meet your Italian-speaking tour manager, board your private bus and depart for your city tour.

Chinatown – Begin your journey in one of North America's largest and most historic Chinatowns, where the aroma of exotic spices fills the air. Stroll past vibrant markets, traditional apothecaries, and the serene Dr. Sun Yat-Sen Classical Chinese Garden, a peaceful escape in the city's heart.

English Bay – Head to English Bay, where the city meets the ocean. This picturesque waterfront area boasts golden beaches, charming cafés, and stunning views of the Pacific. Snap a photo with the famous Inukshuk statue and soak in the laid-back, West Coast vibe.

Robson Street – Take a scenic drive down elegant Robson Street, Vancouver’s premier shopping and fashion district. High-end boutiques, luxury brands, and trendy cafés line the street, making it the perfect place to experience the city’s cosmopolitan energy.

Canada Place – Arrive at Canada Place, an iconic landmark on the waterfront, where cruise ships embark on breathtaking voyages to Alaska. Walk along the pier for a panoramic view of the harbor, Stanley Park, and the North Shore Mountains, and admire the striking white sails of the building.

Gastown – Step back in time in Gastown, Vancouver’s historic district known for its cobblestone streets, Victorian architecture, and the famous Steam Clock.

Granville Island – The tour concludes at Granville Island, a lively cultural hotspot nestled by the water. Enjoy free time exploring the public market, a feast for the senses with gourmet foods, fresh produce, and artisan delicacies. Stroll through quaint streets lined with craft boutiques, artist studios, theaters, and waterfront cafés, making this creative enclave the perfect place to unwind and discover Vancouver’s artistic spirit.

Free time for lunch at own arrangements at one of the many Granville Market restaurants and food parlours.

In the afternoon, depart for Vancouver’s unique gem: Stanley Park. This lush, 1,000-acre green space surrounded by the Pacific Ocean offers breathtaking views of the city skyline and mountains. Visitors can cycle or walk along the Seawall, explore ancient forests, and admire Indigenous totem poles at Brockton Point. With scenic beaches, gardens, and abundant wildlife, it’s a must-visit for nature lovers and photographers alike.

Visit the Vancouver Aquarium (a renowned marine conservation center in Stanley Park, featuring fascinating sea life, interactive exhibits, and rescued marine animals like sea otters and jellyfish) or the University of British Columbia’s Museum of Anthropology (a world-class museum showcasing Indigenous art, massive totem poles, and global cultural artifacts, offering deep insights into First Nations history and traditions).

Dinner at a local restaurant.

Return to your hotel for overnight.

MONDAY 06: MERRITT - KELOWNA

Breakfast at your accommodation and check out.

Board your private bus and depart on your private bus to Merritt, BC (approximately 3 hours' drive plus eventual stops).

Merritt, BC, is a small Nicola Valley city known for its rich ranching history and country music heritage. Surrounded by rolling hills and lakes, it's a hub for outdoor recreation, including fishing, hiking, and off-roading.

Free time for lunch at a local restaurant is available at your convenience.

Board your private bus and depart from Merritt to Kelowna (about a 2-hour drive).

Welcome to Kelowna, a vibrant lakeside city in the Okanagan Valley, famous for its world-class wineries, stunning vineyards, and outdoor adventures. With its sunny climate, sandy beaches, and access to hiking, skiing, and boating on Okanagan Lake, it's a top destination for wine lovers, nature enthusiasts, and those seeking a relaxed yet upscale getaway.

Dinner at a local restaurant.

Check-in at your hotel and overnight in Kelowna

Accomm: Delta Hotels Grand Okanagan Resort or similar – 2 nights

TUESDAY 07: KELOWNA

Breakfast at your accommodation.

Give yourself free time to walk and discover downtown Kelowna in its charm, located within a short distance from the hotel.

Lunch at your convenience at one of the local restaurants and food parlors.

Board your bus and drive to Luckhurst farm for a visit and tasting experience (about a 30-minute drive).

Luckhurst Farm in Kelowna is a family-owned farm and distillery offering a rustic experience with animals, premium spirits, and event hosting. Visitors can enjoy gin, vodka, whiskey, limoncello, and farm life. It's a popular destination for events, local markets, and community engagement.

Next, visit the Mission Hill Winery in West Kelowna (40 minutes' drive).

Mission Hill Family Estate is a renowned winery in West Kelowna, established in 1981, famous for its stunning architecture and award-winning wines. The estate has 32 family-owned vineyards across the Okanagan Valley. Visitors can enjoy guided tours, tastings, and dining with views of Lake Okanagan. The winery also hosts cultural events and concerts, making it a top regional destination.

After visiting the farm and the winery, the group will enjoy a tasting experience with dinner and local products and produce.

Drive back to the hotel (approximately 20 minutes' drive.)

Overnight in Kelowna.

WEDNESDAY 08: VANCOUVER

Breakfast at your accommodation and check out.

Board your bus and depart from Kelowna, embarking on a journey towards Vancouver via the breathtaking Southern Interior Route. As you drive, be captivated by panoramic views that blend majestic mountains, lush forests, and dramatic canyons, setting the stage for an awe-inspiring adventure.

Make a scenic stop in the charming town of Princeton, where you can stretch your legs and explore the quaint streets—time for lunch at your arrangements.

Continue your journey to the stunning E.C. Manning Provincial Park, just an hour and a half away. This grand natural oasis is a true spectacle, offering lush meadows, alpine vistas, and tranquil lakes—perfect for a leisurely hike or simply soaking in the unparalleled beauty of this remarkable park. The journey from Princeton to Manning will take you through some of the region's most scenic landscapes, giving you a sense of the vast wilderness surrounding you.

Reach Vancouver late in the afternoon.

Check-in at your accommodation.

Dinner at a local restaurant.

THURSDAY 09: VANCOUVER

Breakfast at your accommodation.

Board your bus and drive across Vancouver to reach Capilano Park (about 45 minutes' drive.)

Walking across Capilano Suspension Bridge is a thrilling mix of swaying adventure and stunning canyon views. The lush rainforest, rushing river below, and treetop walkways create an immersive nature experience.

Time permitting, stop at the Cleveland Dam for a group photo.

Depart to the Lonsdale Quay in North Vancouver. It is a vibrant waterfront marketplace offering stunning skyline views of downtown. It features diverse food vendors, boutique shops, and a lively atmosphere perfect for strolling. Its scenic boardwalk and nearby breweries make it a great spot to explore.

Free time for lunch at the Quay.

Return to the mountain and climb the Skyride Cable to reach the top of the Grouse Mountain, an all-season adventure hub offering breathtaking views of Vancouver from its summit. Winter is a paradise for skiing, snowboarding, and ice skating, while summer brings hiking, zip-lining, and wildlife encounters. The Skyride gondola ride up the mountain is an unforgettable experience.

Dinner at a local restaurant.

Overnight in Vancouver.

FRIDAY 10: WHISTLER

Breakfast at your accommodation.

Board your private bus and drive North across Vancouver to reach the majestic “Sea to Sky Highway”. This breathtaking drive from Vancouver to Whistler offers stunning ocean, mountain, and waterfall views. Winding along the coastline, it passes scenic spots like Shannon Falls, the Stawamus Chief, and the Sea to Sky Gondola. Every turn reveals a new panorama, making it one of the most scenic routes in the world. (It is approximately a two-hour drive).

Your first stop is the Sea to Sky Gondola in Squamish. This stunning ride takes you 850 meters above Howe Sound and leads to panoramic mountain views, scenic trails, and suspension bridges.

Time for lunch at your arrangements in Squamish.

Continue driving North up the mountain and arrive at Whistler. Whistler hosted the 2010 Winter Olympic games, and today, it is a world-renowned resort town famous for its skiing, mountain biking, and scenic beauty. It is nestled in the Coast Mountains of British Columbia.

Free time to discover the Whistler Village, shop, and rest.

Visit the Squamish Lil'wat Centre, a museum and cultural space dedicated to sharing the heritage of the Squamish Nation and Lil'wat Nation. Visitors can explore Indigenous art, traditions, and history through interactive exhibits, guided tours, and live performances, offering a deep insight into the cultures of these First Nations in a beautiful architectural setting.

Dinner can be arranged in Whistler or back in Vancouver.
